This note from UNO: "In a move generated by fiscal concerns, we are trying to save the cost it requires to print and distribute a paper edition of the UNO Now Notes. Our last edition was May 27th and from there the UNO Now Notes has gone completely electronic." The archives are at http://www.uno.edu/university/news/plus_archives.html.

The National Register of Historic Places in Louisiana LaDoc number has a checkered past, partly because the Division of Historic Preservation has moved around. As long as issues have to be moved, I have decided to consolidate everything under the more recent CR 5.2. The list of places will be CR 5.2: Na/date. The folder will be CR 5.2: Na 1/date.

Here are the entries involved:

Ar 1.2: Na/yr National register review committee meeting: Sep 30, 1981. CRT. Office of Cultural Dev. Div of Historic Preservation.

Ar 1.2: Na 1/yr Louisiana national register [The National register of historic places in La] May 1982 folder; CRT. Office of Cultural Dev. Div of Historic Preservation.

Ar 1.9: date National register of historic places. Dept of Art, Historical and Cultural Preservation. Oct 1974; Dec 1974. ; OP VII has an incomplete entry with no issue/pub date, CRT, Art Commission. Could be the 1980 ed.

CR 1.2: NR/yr Louisiana national register: the National Register of Historic Places in La. CRT. Office of Cultural Dev 1990 folder.

State Library catalog: CR 1.9: Na 1/1980. National register of historic places in Louisiana.

CR 5.2: Na/date National register of historic places in Louisiana. CRT, Office of Cultural Development, Division of Historic Preservation. June 1998; 2000 folder; 1990 folder.

The Department of Education, Career & Technical Education section submitted a new series (my term) of model course guidelines this month. C&TE supersedes the Office of Vocational Education so I am using that LaDoc number: E 50. Six guides are in this May listing. While some have a title very similar to older DOE publications, the C&TE staff says these are brand new titles, not revisions or new editions. This series is a new generation of the old curriculum guides and the standards and benchmarks. Five of the guidelines are fulltext online now; the Marketing Technology Guidelines will be posted soon, after final editing. The 4-digit numbers in the URLs are not DOE bulletin numbers.

The Louisiana Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness (LHLS & EP) history, formally the Louisiana Office of Emergency Preparedness (LOEP), was created by the Civil Act of 1950 and is under the Louisiana Military Department. In 1976 LHLS & EP via the Louisiana government reorganization, was moved to the Department of Public Safety (DPS). In 1990 LHLS & EP was transferred again to the Military Department. In 2003 the Agency name was changed to the Louisiana Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness.

Needless to say, this has played havoc with LaDoc numbers. PS 450 has been used, under the Dept. of Public Safety. Go 450 has been used, under the Governor's Office, Military Dept. The La. Emergency Response Commission has been under DPS. I am not going to try to bring these together under one number. New editions of the existing documents will continue under the original number.
