

Louisiana State Documents Depository Program
Monthly Shipping List
July 2006

REMEMBER TO REVISE YOUR SELECTION LIST BY SEPT 15, 2006.

We tried to apply the new number of copies to board/commission minutes when we could this month. If you got things you were not supposed to get, discard the minutes or offer them directly to Loyola Law (Michele Pope, mpope@loyno.edu), LSU Law (Melanie.Sims@law.lsu.edu) or the Supreme Court (Georgia Chadwick, gchadwick@lasc.org) libraries.

Louisiana citizen awareness & disaster evacuation guide was distributed in June. Five copies of the southwest edition Disaster Evacuation Guide for southwest Louisiana are distributed to the historical depositories in this July shipment. Multiple copies should be available from local Red Cross offices in those southwestern parishes that would need it. Jeannie Brock, McNeese Library, has some and can get lots more of the SW edition from the Lake Charles Red Cross. Contact her if you need more copies lbrock@mcneese.edu

Sharks, Tunas, and Billfishes of the U.S. Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico is a great book, <http://www.seagrants.unh.edu/sharks.html>. LSU Sea Grant is only selling them for the Rhode Island Sea Grant but they bought 3 copies for our depository program. You can buy a copy from LSU Sea Grant, Jessica Schexnayder 578-6448, jsche15@lsu.edu, for $25 + $3 S/H.

Another item you will probably want to pick up at your local store is Louisiana Speaks: Pattern Book. The depository program only got 2 copies from the La Recovery Agency. Distribution of this and its companion Tool Kit (should be out within a couple of months) are distributed at Lowe's, Stine Lumber and Chalmette Hardware.

Twelve copies each of 3 editions of the Official Tour Guide are in the July shipment. The bicentennial one is 2003; the trumpet player cover is 2001; the 3 pictures of musicians is 2005.

We got only 3 copies of back issues, through 2005, of the various wildlife and fisheries regulations: alligator, migratory game bird hunting, turkey hunting, trapping. We have emphasized to the agency that we need the full number of copies of the new 2006 editions. If you need copies of any before the depository program receives and distributes them, contact the agency directly, 225-765-2917. All of the regs are online and in the La Administrative Code.

The 2006 legislature changed the name of the Washington Correctional Institute to B. B. "Sixty" Rayburn Correctional Center.

The Treasury Dept. just issued the first post Katrina bonds. Until now, the Depository Program has gotten paper copies of the Official Statement (Final). The Dept. says: "... this year it's a bit different. We aren't ordering that many paper copies anymore, but the links to the two OSs are

The Records Office will continue our current policy of printing out 1 copy of electronic-only docs, create a catalog record with the URL, then list the item in the shipping list. Each depository library needing a paper format will need to print out a copy.

LDWF Employee Bulletin or The Bulletin. qtrly. 2004- Distributed for short time in paper only to employees; no issues are available in print or electronic. In 2006, it is electronic-only, distributed via email to employees; there is no way for others to sign up to get it. I am saying it is not a state doc.

http://www.wlf.louisiana.gov/aboutldwf/employee_bulletin/ has only Vol. 6, no.1 (Spring 2006). If libs want to print copies, they can use CoW 1.7/1a: v/#/date.

An earlier LDWF employee newsletter was Wildlife Newsletter. It used CoW 1.7/1: v/#/date. The depository program received: v.1, no. 1 Nov. 1960-v.2, no. 12 Dec. 1961; v.3, no. 1 Jan. 1962-no. 2 Feb., no. 4 April – v. 3, no. 12/v.4, no. 1 (Dec. 1962/Jan. 1963) – v.4, no. 6 June 1963 and may have received some other 1961 & 1962 issues. The agency has no information on this newsletter.

La Dept of Wildlife & Fisheries also has a Newsletter for the fish & game industry and the media. *CoW 1.7/2: v/#/date. The title could be Dept of Wildlife & Fisheries Newsletter. It is weekly. Vol. 6, no. 1-19, January 10- May 16, 1997, 19 nos. Vol. 6, nos. 20-42, May 23- October 24, 1997, 23 nos. [7/2006:; now electronic; you can sign up to get it. V. 12, no. 1 – 12 online <http://www.wlf.louisiana.gov/aboutldwf/newsletter/>

H 90.5: 2000 Louisiana State Plumbing Code I am not sure I understand all this but the bottom line is the 2000 edition is still the most current with no amendments. 7/2006 from DHH Safe Drinking Water Program Enforcement Unit Administrator: "The Louisiana State Plumbing Code, 2000 Edition (LSPC), is still currently used. It has not been officially amended via APA rulemaking procedures since it was originally adopted in July 2000. The LSPC is essentially equivalent to Part XIV of the Louisiana State Sanitary Code (LAC 51:XIV); however, the 'meat' of it is not available on the OSR website as the LSPC is copyrighted in certain jurisdictions within the U.S.

In 2001, we had also delivered extra copies so that a copy could be placed in each main parish library and many college and university libraries which were not a normal depository library. This was done so that the public would not necessarily have to pay $57.00 or $63.00 to figure out what the state plumbing rule said. Since 2000 adoption, the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal has since ruled that documents such as this are not 'copyrightable' once adopted in the 'public domain'; however, this ruling only applies to those states overseen by the Fifth Circuit. Therefore, the document is still 'copyrightable' in California, for example, since the State of CA is not part of the Fifth Circuit."

Foos: H 90.5: Sa/5/yr was assigned to Sanitary Code, part XII Water Supplies published by DHH Oct. 20, 2000. The Public Health Sanitary Code is La Administrative Code Title 51.

The State Library catalog has a separate record for Louisiana Amendments to the Standard Plumbing code, 1992- . This did not come through the depository system. Just FYI.

For several years I have wanted to change the LaDoc number for the La State Law Institute which has been LI since 1960s. OPACs (and those writing call numbers on items) have trouble distinguishing between upper and lower case LI and Li. Of course, the State Library docs have always been Li and there are lots of publications there. The Louisiana state law institute biennial report is EL 60.1: yr, putting it in with LSU-BR since it is housed there.

I thought about moving the Institute docs to LIN so folks could only add an N to the items themselves. Please let me know if you think this is a problem that is worth the effort of changing.

I am still cleaning off my office table, finding old stuff buried. The following was in the March 2003 MSL: Developing a Louisiana energy policy; presented at the 50th Mineral Law Institute Conference, April 3, 2003 by Charles V. Cusimano and Michael T. French, Baton Rouge: La. Department of Natural Resources, 2003. 42 p.: tables (color). This is not a state document but is listed as an FYI. We got 5 copies so they are finally being distributed this month (July!!) to the historical depositories. NR 1.2: DLEP/2003.
