

The St. Martin Parish Library is excited that the expanded and modernized Cecilia Branch Library will open in the next few months.

The St. Martin Parish Library (SMPL) is investing in our communities with the soon to open expanded Cecilia Branch and the recently expanded Breaux Bridge branch. The vibrant Cecilia community has recently been designated as a Louisiana Cultural District. The newly rebuilt library, with its meeting room and other services, will play a major role in the community with increased access to technology, digital literacy, programming services, and staff.

SMPL seeks an experienced degreed librarian to join the Cecilia Branch team. We are interested in you if you possess

- 3 years of public library experience as a senior librarian, assistant or branch manager
- A Master's Degree in Library and Information Sciences (MLIS, MLS) from an ALA-accredited school
- Demonstrated public service/community orientation
- Experience with traditional and emerging electronic information sources

Serving St. Martin Parish with branches in Breaux Bridge, Cecilia, Parks, and St. Martinville, we are home to a collection of 130,000 individual items including books, DVDs, audiobooks, magazines and newspapers. We also offer online databases, eBooks, electronic audiobooks, and streaming video.

SMPL is a member of the Bayouland Library System which includes the parish libraries of Acadia, Allen, Iberia, Lafayette, Opelousas-Eunice, St. Martin, St. Mary, and Vermilion.

Our mission is to provide all patrons of the parish with equal access to high quality informational and technological resources to meet the diverse needs of the community for information, life-long learning and enjoyment.
