BookTalk spring title announcement

Our next online Book Club discussion topic will be Life on the Mississippi by Mark Twain. It is available in large print and audio (DB51079). This book was also selected for the eleventh spring One Book/One Community which is a community-wide reading program sponsored by the East Baton Rouge Parish Library.

How to join BookTalks

We hold our book discussions via an email discussion list. Members comment on the book by sending an email to the discussion list. All members then see the comments and have the ability to respond by email to the group. If you want to join our discussion group, go to: http://pelican.state.lib.la.us/mailman/ listinfo/tbblbooktalks and create an account by entering your email address and make up a password or, as always, you can call your reader adviser.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Safety guides

According to recent statistics over 40 million people in the United States have some type of disability. The National Fire Protection Association has developed free educational materials for people with disabilities. These materials describing safety tips can be downloaded and used in homes, workplaces, schools and communities. Go to: <http://www.nfpa.org/public-education/by-topic/people-at-risk/people-with-disabilities/educational-materials>.

The NFPA website also provides an Emergency Evacuation Planning Guide that outlines how to create an evacuation

Strategic plan review

In order to provide outstanding service to our patrons over the next five years, TBBL is working on a strategic plan for 2018-2022. A draft of the proposed plan will be posted to the TBBL website April 10-23 for recommendations. If you have any suggestions, please contact Shelia Coleman at scoleman@slol.lib.la.us.

plan for persons with the following disabilities: mobility impairments, visual impairments, hearing impairments, speech impairments, and cognitive impairments. The Evacuation Planning Checklist on the same site can be used to design a personalized evacuation plan.

Adult Summer Reading Program

The TBBL 2017 Adult Summer Reading Program will start May 1, 2017, and will run through August 31. The theme this year is “Build a Better World.” If you complete the program by reading 20 books you will be entered into a drawing to win a set of headphones.

To sign up, simply contact your reader advisor and start reading! If you would like, we will mail you a reading log to keep track of the books you have read. Once you have read 20 books, call your reader advisor to let them know, and your name will be entered into the drawing for a set of headphones that will work with your NLS Digital Book Reader. If you have a reading log, you can return it to us by mail or call to give us the list over the phone.

Audio books, Braille, large print books and audio magazines all count. If you need any reading suggestions please ask us; we are happy to help! One entry per person. We will choose 50 lucky winners from the list of those who have read at least 20 books.

More digital books?

When readers first sign up for service, we send them two books. If the books are returned consistently within the 30-day loan period, the reader is considered to be in good standing and the number of books received can be increased. To adjust your service preference call the library and ask your reader adviser to increase the number of books you receive daily, weekly, bi-weekly or monthly.

Audio Description Resource Guide

Audio Description, also called Video Description, is an audio-narrated description of a television program's key visual elements. These descriptions are inserted into natural pauses in the program's dialogue. Video description makes TV programming more accessible to individuals who are blind or visually impaired.

FCC rules require local TV station affiliates of ABC, CBS, Fox and NBC located in the top 60 TV markets to provide 50 hours per calendar quarter (about 4 hours per week) of video-described prime time and/or children's programming.

National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped has created a guide which provides sources of descriptive video for television, film, DVDs, and web-streaming services, as well as information on audio-described live performances and tours. The guide includes information about the 21st Century Communications and Video Accessibility Act (CVAA), the technology and training behind descriptive video, and vendors who provide descriptive services on demand.

Did you know that ABC shows featuring audio description include: American Housewife, Black-ish, Fresh Off the Boat, The Goldbergs, The Middle, Modern Family, The Real O'Neals, Secrets and Lies, Speechless & Shark Tank?

You can find out what other shows are available by using the Audio Description Resource Guide at:

<http://www.loc.gov/nls/reference/guides/audio.html>

Five new network-produced digital audio books

DBC8578 The Bachelors by Muriel Spark. A group of British bachelors find their cozy world suddenly shattered when they discover they are the target of blackmail and fraud.

DBC3116 Vengeance is Mine! by Mickey Spillane. A lush blonde leads Mike Hammer through bistros and bedrooms in a lead-riddled hunt for a kill-crazy murderer. Strong language.

DBC8772 A Sweetness to the Soul by Jane Kirkpatrick. Pioneer Jane Herbert who, at the age of twelve, faces a tragedy which begins a life-long search for forgiveness and love. In the years that follow, Jane finds herself involved in a romance with a dreamer sixteen years her senior, struggles to make peace with an emotionally distant mother, and fights to build a family of her own.

DBC8774 A Gathering of Finches by Jane Kirkpatrick. Based on historical characters and events, A Gathering of Finches tells the story of a turn-of-the-century Oregon coastal couple and the consequences of their choices, as seen through the eyes of the wife, her sister, and her Indian maid. Along the way, the reader will discover reasons to trust that money and possessions can't buy happiness or forgiveness, nor permit us to escape the consequences of our choices. The story emphasizes the message that real meaning is found in the relationships we nurture and in living our lives in obedience to God.

DBC8144 Air Force One: An Honor, Privilege, and Pleasure to Serve by John L. Haigh. Upon graduation from high school, John Haigh enlisted in the United States Air Force and, in 1963, volunteered for flight duty. In 1973, he was assigned to Andrews Air Force Base, the home of Air Force One, becoming a permanent member of the crew in 1979, serving Presidents Carter, Reagan, and Bush Sr.

Five new bestsellers

DB81411 Prodigal Son by Danielle Steel. When investment banker Peter McDowell's life implodes, he has nowhere to go but to the lake house he inherited from his parents. Wary of meeting his estranged twin Michael, he is surprised when Michael warmly welcomes him. Peter is hopeful of a repaired relationship, until journals reveal secrets. Bestseller. 2015.

DB81243 Moriarty by Anthony Horowitz. Days after the Swiss waterfall encounter

believed to have killed both Sherlock Holmes and criminal mastermind Professor Moriarty, Pinkerton detective Frederick Chase and Scotland Yard inspector Athelney Jones, a devoted student of Holmes' methods of investigation and deduction, must track down a sinister figure claiming to be Moriarty's successor. Some violence. Bestseller. 2014.

DB80430 The Mistletoe Promise by Richard Paul Evans. Three years after Elise divorced her husband for cheating, another holiday season rolls around, sending her into a funk. Then Nicholas Derr approaches her in the food court where they both eat and offers a contract in which they pretend to be in a relationship. Neither expects the consequences. Bestseller. 2014.

DB80514 The Roosevelts: An Intimate History by Geoffrey C. Ward. Historian and author of Closest Companion (DB 42168), Ward details the lives of presidents Theodore (1858-1919) and Franklin Delano Roosevelt (1882-1945) and First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt (1884-1962). Explores their influences, triumphs, and tragedies. Companion book to PBS documentary by Ken Burns, and includes a preface by the filmmaker. Bestseller. 2014.

DB80480 Act Like a Success, Think Like a Success: Discovering Your Gift and the Way to Life's Riches by Steve Harvey. Comedian, talk show host, and author of Straight Talk, No Chaser (DB 72505) offers suggestions and exercises to identify unique personal gifts and parlay them into greater success and fulfillment. Uses stories and anecdotes to illustrate the principles discussed. Bestseller. 2014.

Support our TBBL friends organization

The Jones Foundation acknowledges the following donors for their generous contributions:

- ✦ Jennifer Anjier
- ✦ Carl Junior Bullard, Karin Whiteside Bullard and South Gateway Tire Company in memory of Mrs. Freida Karr Smith
- ✦ George Pugh
- ✦ Joyce Weber
- ✦ Jane Wheelahan

Since 1981, the Mrs. W. Carruth Jones Foundation has acted as a friends group for the Talking Books and Braille Library in the State Library of Louisiana.

It provides a mechanism for accepting donations to enhance and support services to the blind and physically handicapped community statewide.

It directly supplements the programs and initiatives of TBBL within the State Library. It is a primary sponsor of the State Library's large print collection, TBBL's summer reading program, and descriptive video collection and it supports volunteer efforts in the area.

To contribute, make checks payable to the Foundation and mail to the following address:

Mrs. W. Carruth Jones Foundation
1131 N. River Road
Port Allen, LA 70767

All donations are tax deductible. Anyone who makes a donation receives a one-year membership to the Foundation. For meeting information call Shelia Coleman at 225.342.4942.

If you shop on Amazon Smile, .5% (one half of one percent) of purchases will go to the Jones Foundation.
