Still time to take the TBBL Survey

There is still time to participate in the biennial TBBL survey. If you haven't given your feedback yet, please call your reader adviser to take the survey over the phone. To complete the survey online, visit www.surveymonkey.com/r/TBBL2017.

We appreciate your feedback. Rest assured we take it very seriously and use it to better serve you.

Mark your calendars

This year's Louisiana Book Festival will be held on October 28, 2017, in and around the State Library of Louisiana in Baton Rouge.

BARD Express

BARD Express is a Windows-based application that simplifies the process of searching for, downloading, and transferring audio materials to a cartridge or USB flash drive (no more having to unzip files). BARD Express is designed for use on personal computers running Windows XP, Vista, 7, 8, 8.1, and 10. It does not run on Macintosh computers.

NLS has posted helpful how-to videos for BARD Express. You can find them at: <http://www.state.lib.la.us/special-services/talking-books-and-braille-library/videos-about-tbbl-services>.

Please call your reader adviser if you would like more information about BARD Express.

Five new network-produced digital audio books

DBC11883 Rave On: The Biography of Buddy Holly by Norman Philip.

Songs like That'll Be the Day and Peggy Sue made Texan Buddy Holly a rock-and-roll star; his death at 22 in a 1959 plane crash made him a legend. His most enduring legacy was the effect that his 1958 tour had on a generation of British musicians who would soon incorporate what they heard into a musical phenomenon that would change the entertainment business. British writer Philip Norman, author of biographies of the Beatles and the Rolling Stones, had access to previously unavailable sources, including contracts and other documents owned by Norman Petty, the studio owner and record producer who brought Holly to prominence. This carefully researched biography offers new insights into Holly's brief life and his place in popular culture. Explicit descriptions of sex and strong language.

DBC03087 The Normal Christian Life by Watchman Nee.

An early leader in what became China's phenomenal house church movement, Watchman Nee (1903-1972) spent the last 20 years of his life in a communist prison. First published in Bombay in 1957, his powerful meditation brings the daily reality of following Christ into sharp focus. This edition includes biographical information about the author, as well as about previous editions of this book.

DBC05669 Thoughts in Solitude
by Thomas Merton.

Thoughtful, eloquent, and as timely now as when it was originally published in 1956, this book of meditations addresses the pleasure of a solitary life, as well as the necessity for quiet reflection in an age when so little is private. These reflections were written in 1953-54 at the Abbey of Gethsemane, near Bardstown KY. The book is divided into two parts: Aspects of the Spiritual Life, and The Love of Solitude.

DBC05780 Blood Bond
by William W. Johnstone.

Matt Bodine and his half-Cheyenne blood brother Sam Two Wolves know that war is coming to the northern territories. While they determine whether their allegiance lies with the Indians or the U.S. Army in the summer of 1876, Custer's men and the tribes converge by the Little Bighorn River. Some strong language and some violence.

DBC00564 Iron Kissed
by Patricia Briggs

Shapeshifting mechanic Mercy Thompson finds her loyalty sorely tested when her former boss and mentor is arrested for murder and left to rot behind bars by his own kind, while she is trying to choose between Sam and Adam, the two werewolves she loves. Some violence, some strong language and some descriptions of sex.

Recent Bestsellers

DB83545 NYPD Red 4
by James Patterson.

At a Manhattan movie premiere, a starlet arrives dripping in millions of dollars' worth of loaned jewelry. After a sudden, loud noise, a vicious crime occurs with millions of witnesses and no suspect. Enter NYPD Red--the elite task force assigned to protect the rich, famous, and connected. Unrated. Commercial audiobook. 2016.

DB85353 Dream Home: The Property Brothers' Ultimate Guide to Finding & Fixing Your Perfect House
by Jonathan Scott.

reader who could occasionally predict the future but always knew your past. Some strong language and some descriptions of sex. Bestseller. 2015.

DB81051 You Can, You Will: Eight Undeniable Qualities of a Winner by Joel Osteen.

Television pastor and author of Break Out! (DB 77664) enumerates eight principles he believes are the hallmarks of winners. Discusses having the creative vision to dream big, being able to focus on your goals, maintaining a positive mindset, expecting the best of yourself, and more. Bestseller. 2014.

DB80120 Jesus on trial: A lawyer affirms the truth of the Gospel by David Limbaugh.

Attorney and brother of conservative commentator Rush Limbaugh analyzes the reliability and truthfulness of the Christian Bible. Addresses concerns and challenges raised by skeptics. Discusses archaeological support for the text and asserts that Christianity is compatible with the scientific method. Bestseller. 2014.

DB083265 I'll Never Write My Memoirs by Grace Jones.

Legendary influential performer Grace Jones offers a revealing account of her spectacular career and turbulent life, charting the development of a persona that has made her one of the world's most recognizable artists. As a singer, model, and actress—a deluxe triple threat—Grace has consistently been an extreme, challenging presence in the entertainment world since her emergence as an international model in the 1970s. Celebrated for her audacious talent and trailblazing style, Grace became one of the most unforgettable, free-spirited characters to emerge from the historic Studio 54, recording glittering disco classics such as “I Need a Man” and “La Vie en Rose.” Her provocative shows in underground New York nightclubs saw her hailed as a disco queen, gay icon, and gender defying iconoclast. Bestseller. 2015.

How to Get Weather Alerts

The AccuWeather information service is offered on NFB-NEWSLINE, giving blind and print-disabled people instant access to emergency weather alerts.

NFB-NEWSLINE offers both seven-day weather forecasts as well as emergency weather alerts. These weather alerts are localized to your zip code, or using your GPS for the NFB-NEWSLINE iOS Mobile App. Now if you hear the emergency tones on your television and are unable to read the message scrolling on the screen, you can log into NFB-NEWSLINE and the weather emergency will be provided to you immediately.

NFB-NEWSLINE is a free audible newspaper and magazine reading service that provides information to blind and print-disabled readers over the telephone, online and on the iPhone. For more information or to register for NFB-NEWSLINE visit www.nfbnewsline.org, email nfbnewsline@nfb.org, or call 1.866.504.7300.

Support our TBBL friends organization

The Jones Foundation acknowledges the following donors for their generous contributions:

Catherine S. Comeaux

Since 1981, the Mrs. W. Carruth Jones Foundation has acted as a friends group for the Talking Books and Braille Library in the State Library of Louisiana.

It provides a mechanism for accepting donations to enhance and support services to the blind and physically handicapped community statewide.

It directly supplements the programs and initiatives of TBBL within the State Library. It is a primary sponsor of the State Library's large print collection, TBBL's summer reading program, and descriptive video collection and it supports volunteer efforts in the area.

To contribute, make checks payable to the Foundation and mail to the following address:

Mrs. W. Carruth Jones Foundation
1131 N. River Road
Port Allen, LA 70767

All donations are tax deductible.
Anyone who makes a donation receives a one-year membership to the Foundation.
