BARD Express

NLS has released BARD Express. BARD Express is a Windows-based application that simplifies the process of searching for, downloading, and transferring audio materials to a cartridge or USB flash drive (no more having to "unzip" files). BARD Express is designed for use on personal computers running Windows XP, Vista, 7, 8, 8.1, and 10. It does not run on Macintosh computers.

NLS has posted some helpful how-to videos for BARD Express that you can find at the State Library of Louisiana's TBBL website: www.state.lib.la.us/special-services/talking-books-and-braille-library/videos-about-tbbl-services.

Please call your reader adviser if you would like more information about this computer application.

Braille calendars

The 2017 Braille calendars were recently mailed to patrons who received them in the past. Call your reader adviser if you would like to start receiving a Braille calendar.

Returning Talking Book Topics

NLS is aware that some patrons are having difficulty with the change in returning the September/October Talking Book Topics cartridge to the producer. The mailing container has the return address printed on a label affixed to the mailing container so there is no need to insert or flip a mailing card. Simply return the cartridge in the mailing container. The order form is mailed separately and also pre-addressed.

2017 NFBL convention

The 2017 National Federation of the Blind Louisiana annual convention will be held March 24-26 at the Wyndham Garden Hotel in Shreveport located at 1419 East 70th Street. Contact Pam Allen if you are interested in attending at 318.251.2891.

Attention alumni!

If you attended the Louisiana School for the Blind at Southern University in Baton Rouge please, contact Ronald Daniels at:

985.271.9366 or Shirley Barber Colbert at 318.458.4911. They have important information to share with you and would appreciate your prompt reply.

E-Mail address changes and BARD

If you change e-mail address reason, you do not need to create a new BARD account. Instead, log into your BARD account and choose the Update Account Settings on the BARD Main Page. This will take you to a page of options, including a link to Change Your E-Mail Address. Once you change your e-mail address/user ID, you will receive an email with a temporary password. Login with the new email address and temporary password and create a new password to protect the security of your account.

WRBH Reading Radio - 88.3 FM

The mission of WRBH Reading Radio is "to turn the printed word into the spoken word so that the blind and print handicapped can receive the same ease of access to current information as their sighted peers."

WRBH offers a wide variety of programming including local and national news, best-selling fiction and non-fiction books, magazine articles, children's books, event calendars, interview segments, health programs, cooking shows, and grocery store ads, as well as shows geared toward Spanish, Haitian, and Vietnamese communities. This programming is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

WRBH's FM signal is available across the following Louisiana parishes: Orleans, Jefferson, St. Tammany, St. Charles, St. John, Terrebonne, St. Bernard, and Plaquemines. WRBH is the United States' only 24-hour reading radio is one of only three such stations in the world.

WRBH is available on the internet via live audio streaming and podcasts. This means that anyone in the world can listen to WRBH's internet content.

For more information, contact WRBH Reading Radio by phone at 504.899.1144 or on the web at www.wrbh.org.

New selection for BookTalks discussion group

BookTalks, the email-based TBBL adult book discussion group, has just finished reading and discussing Creole Belle: A Dave Robicheaux Novel by James Lee Burke.

Our new book will be a selection from classic literature: Middlemarch by George Eliot.

DB20078 Middlemarch by George Eliot. Reading time: 33 hours, 51 minutes. Read by Patricia Beaudry. Penguin Classics describes Middlemarch as "One of the most accomplished and prominent novels of the Victorian era, Middlemarch is an unsurpassed portrait of nineteenth-century English provincial life. Dorothea Brooke is a young woman of fervent ideals who yearns to effect social change yet faces resistance from the society she inhabits. In this epic in a small landscape, Eliot's large cast of precisely delineated characters and the rich tapestry of their stories result in a wise, compassionate, and astute vision of human nature. As Virginia Woolf declared, George Eliot 'was one of the first English novelists to discover that men and women think as well as feel, and the discovery was of great artistic moment.' "

George Eliot is the pen name for Mary Ann Evans Cross, who was born on November 22, 1819 at Arbury Farm, Warwickshire, England. She is also the author of Adam Bede, The Mill on the Floss, and Silas Marner.

How to join BookTalks

Our book discussions are held via an email discussion list. Members comment on the book by sending an email to the discussion list. All members will see the comments and have the ability to respond by email to the group. If you want to join our discussion group, then create an account by entering your email address and make up a password at: <http://pelican.state.lib.la.us/mailman/listinfo/tbblbooktalks> or call your reader adviser.

Hope to hear from you soon!

Support our TBBL friends organization

The Jones Foundation acknowledges the following donors for their generous contributions:

Frank Bains

Since 1981, the Mrs. W. Carruth Jones Foundation has acted as a friends group for the Talking Books and Braille Library in the State Library of Louisiana.

It provides a mechanism for accepting donations to enhance and support services to the blind and physically handicapped community statewide.

It directly supplements the programs and initiatives of TBBL within the State Library. It is a primary sponsor of the State Library's large print collection, TBBL's summer reading program, and descriptive video collection and it supports volunteer efforts in the area.

To contribute, make checks payable to the Foundation and mail to the following address:

Mrs. W. Carruth Jones Foundation
1131 N. River Road
Port Allen, LA 70767

All donations are tax deductible. Anyone who makes a donation receives a one-year membership to the Foundation.
