

Technical Services and Interlibrary Loan Librarian

Centenary College of Louisiana invites applications for the position of Technical Services and Interlibrary Loan Librarian. This is a full-time, twelve-month position.

Centenary College's library system includes the John F. Magale Memorial Library, the Hurley School of Music Library, and the Centenary Archives and Special Collections. The library's mission is to foster intellectual development and community engagement by offering a rich academic environment in which students, faculty, and staff can study, research, collaborate, and explore while also discovering the resources and accessing the support they need to succeed and grow.

The ideal candidate for this position will be a proactive and organized individual who will provide leadership and coordination for the college's interlibrary loan and technical services to provide timely access to resources for all library patrons while also assisting in the day-to-day operations of the library.

An ALA-accredited Master of Library Science, Master of Library and Information Science, or a Master's Degree in a related field is required for this position. The successful candidate will have library experience, the ability to work with a diverse group of people, be well organized and self-motivated, and demonstrate competence in various computer systems. Preference will be given to candidates with experience at a selective, private, residential liberal arts college.

Centenary recognizes that diversity is essential to its goal of providing an educational environment where students explore the unfamiliar, invent new approaches to understanding, and connect their work and lives to the world at large. We thus welcome applicants who would add to the College's diversity of ideas, beliefs, experiences, and cultural backgrounds. EOE.
