- By law, preference in lending books and equipment is given to veterans. Please check here if you have been honorably discharged from the Armed Forces of the United States.

Please check the primary disability preventing you from reading standard print:

- Blindness - Visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting lens, or the widest diameter of visual field is no greater than 20 degrees.
- Visual impairment - You cannot see well enough or focus long enough to read standard print, although you wear glasses to correct your vision.
- Physical disability - You are unable to handle print books or turn pages because of a physical disability.
- Reading disability - Disability must be physically based (an organic dysfunction) and of sufficient severity to prevent reading standard printed material in a normal manner. Application must be signed by a doctor of medicine or osteopathy.
- Deaf-blindness - Same definition for blindness listed above must apply.

Books, equipment and other services

Please check the boxes for any items or services you wish to receive:

Materials:

I would like to receive the following materials (please check all that apply):

- Audio books and magazines
- Braille books and magazines
- Large print books - 14 point type
- Illustrated children's Big Books

Tell us how you would like to read your books and/or magazines:

- I would like to receive audio books and magazines on cartridge through the mail. Please loan me a free talking-book player and mail me my books and magazines. Note: delivery of materials may take up to 10 days.
- I would like to access library materials using an app on my mobile device (smartphone, tablet, iPhone, iPad, Kindle, etc.) Note: the app provides immediate access to Talking Book and Braille materials.

Equipment and accessories:

- High volume player and headphones (solely for use by readers with profound hearing loss; ask for a separate application)
- Pillow speakers - for readers confined to bed.

Return of Equipment

Playback equipment and accessories are supplied to eligible patrons on extended loan. If this equipment is not being used for reading recorded materials provided by the Library of Congress and its cooperating libraries, please return it to the issuing agency.

Confidentiality

The information on this application is required to establish eligibility for free library services. This is a library record, and as such its information is confidential.

Services:

- Download service (BARD) - Must have a computer with high-speed internet and an email address. Downloaded books are saved to a blank cartridge or flash drive, then played on the talking-book player. Must have a refreshable Braille device if downloading digital Braille books.
- NFB Newslines service - Have newspapers and popular magazines read to you over the telephone.
- Online catalog service - Register for a login to view your request list and reading preferences, do searches, order books. Access the entire collection of audio, large print and Braille books.

Music materials:

- Music instruction and/or music appreciation material on digital cartridge
 - Music magazines, scores and /or music appreciation in Braille
 - Music scores in large print
- Note: The program cannot provide recorded music for recreational listening.

Reading preferences

A faxed or scanned signature is acceptable.

Definition of Certifying Authority

1. In cases of blindness, visual impairment or physical disability, certifying authorities include doctors of medicine or osteopathy, optometrists, registered nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, therapists, professional staff of hospitals, institutions and public agencies (e.g., social workers, counselors or rehabilitation teachers). In the absence of any of these, certification may be made by professional librarians or by any person whose competence under specific circumstances is acceptable to the Library of Congress.
2. In the case of a reading disability the certifying authority must be a doctor of medicine or osteopathy, who may consult with colleagues in associated disciplines.
3. A family member may not certify this application.

Applicant agreement

It is the responsibility of the library user to:

1. Read and return books within 30 days or call to renew.
2. Borrow or download at least one book per year.
3. Take reasonable care of materials and machines.
4. Notify the library of any address, phone number or email changes.
5. Return all equipment to the library when it is no longer being used.

I understand the above responsibilities and agree to follow them.
